

Livermore Rotary Club

Revision Number: 4

Revision Date: 7 NOV 13

Date of Policy Creation and Board Approval: 14 SEP 2010

5. Costs Card

COSTS (8/21/2012) OF BELONGING TO ROTARY CLUB OF LIVERMORE

DUES - $360 per year; can be paid semiannually.

FINES – All members are expected to donate $50 to the Club at some time during the year, usually in the form of an “indulgence” or “fine”. Many members make a donation by joining the President’s Club for a cost of $100 to The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International, $100 to Rotarian Foundation of Livermore, and $50 to the Club for a total of $250. Donations to other Club interests, such as the Nepalese Children’s Fund and the Music Scholarship Fund are also accepted.

PASS THE HAT – Optional - Members may be asked to donate to various causes.

LUNCH – Members must attend weekly meetings. Cost of lunch is $20 for those who eat and $15 for those who have only coffee or tea and cookies. Lunch Cards are available if one wishes to pay in advance. Missed meetings that are not made up cost $10 for Active Members and $20 for Active-Engaged members. The meal tickets cover both eating and non-eating options.

FUNDRAISERS – Optional – Members are asked to support a number of fundraisers for club activities and the Foundations.

November 2013

COSTS (8/21/2012) OF BELONGING TO ROTARY CLUB OF LIVERMORE

DUES - $360 per year; can be paid semiannually.

FINES – All members are expected to donate $50 to the Club at some time during the year, usually in the form of an “indulgence” or “fine”. Many members make a donation by joining the President’s Club for a cost of $100 to The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International, $100 to Rotarian Foundation of Livermore, and $50 to the Club for a total of $250. Donations to other Club interests, such as the Nepalese Children’s Fund and the Music Scholarship Fund are also accepted.

PASS THE HAT – Optional - Members may be asked to donate to various causes.

LUNCH – Members must attend weekly meetings. Cost of lunch is $20 for those who eat and $15 for those who have only coffee or tea and cookies. Lunch Cards are available if one wishes to pay in advance. Missed meetings that are not made up cost $10 for Active Members and $20 for Active-Engaged members. The meal tickets cover both eating and non-eating options.

FUNDRAISERS – Optional – Members are asked to support a number of fundraisers for club activities and the Foundations.

November 2013

COSTS (8/21/2012) OF BELONGING TO ROTARY CLUB OF LIVERMORE

DUES - $360 per year; can be paid semiannually.

FINES – All members are expected to donate $50 to the Club at some time during the year, usually in the form of an “indulgence” or “fine”. Many members make a donation by joining the President’s Club for a cost of $100 to The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International, $100 to Rotarian Foundation of Livermore, and $50 to the Club for a total of $250. Donations to other Club interests, such as the Nepalese Children’s Fund and the Music Scholarship Fund are also accepted.

PASS THE HAT – Optional - Members may be asked to donate to various causes.

LUNCH – Members must attend weekly meetings. Cost of lunch is $20 for those who eat and $15 for those who have only coffee or tea and cookies. Lunch Cards are available if one wishes to pay in advance. Missed meetings that are not made up cost $10 for Active Members and $20 for Active-Engaged members. The meal tickets cover both eating and non-eating options.

FUNDRAISERS – Optional – Members are asked to support a number of fundraisers for club activities and the Foundations.

November 2013

COSTS (8/21/2012) OF BELONGING TO ROTARY CLUB OF LIVERMORE

DUES - $360 per year; can be paid semiannually.

FINES – All members are expected to donate $50 to the Club at some time during the year, usually in the form of an “indulgence” or “fine”. Many members make a donation by joining the President’s Club for a cost of $100 to The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International, $100 to Rotarian Foundation of Livermore, and $50 to the Club for a total of $250. Donations to other Club interests, such as the Nepalese Children’s Fund and the Music Scholarship Fund are also accepted.

PASS THE HAT – Optional - Members may be asked to donate to various causes.

LUNCH – Members must attend weekly meetings. Cost of lunch is $20 for those who eat and $15 for those who have only coffee or tea and cookies. Lunch Cards are available if one wishes to pay in advance. Missed meetings that are not made up cost $10 for Active Members and $20 for Active-Engaged members. The meal tickets cover both eating and non-eating options.

FUNDRAISERS – Optional – Members are asked to support a number of fundraisers for club activities and the Foundations.

November 2013